PRINCETON COUNTRY DANCERS PRESENTS:

RUM & ONIONS XXVII—Halloween Contra Dance in Lawrenceville NJ—Saturday, October 28, 2006

Beth Molaro, from Asheville NC, specializes in calling square dances and contra dances. She is well known for her energetic style, clear instructions and smooth voice. Since 1994, Beth has called more than 100 dances each year from coast to coast as well as Denmark and Canada. Be prepared for a “whooping & hollering” good time with vivacious Beth as our caller!

Michael Bell, our bandleader, is a talented musician from the Princeton NJ area. Michael has played the fiddle for contra and English dances in many local groups. He has led the Princeton Country Dancers' pick-up band almost since it started, and has been a member of most of the R&O bands. Michael makes it obvious that he enjoys what he is doing, and his enthusiasm is contagious!

5:30 Doors Open for Admission - Potluck contributions are also accepted at this time in the cafeteria.

Please CARRY in a pair of CLEAN, SOFT-SOLED dancing shoes to protect the gymnasium floor.

6:00 Potluck Supper - We would love to have you join in the potluck. All we ask is that you bring a substantial dish to share. Drinks are provided by PCD.

7:00 Basics Workshop & Warm up - Expert instruction graciously provided by local caller Mark Widmer.

7:30 Grand March - Immediately followed by contra dancing till 11:00, costumes encouraged although optional.

9:00 Refreshment Break - Contributions (sweets, fruit, savory and salty snacks) are gratefully accepted.
