VOL. 3, NO. 2 JUNE 2003

WE'RE BACK AT THE SUZANNE PATTERSON CENTER!

After many delays, PCD finally returned to our "old" home of 1995–2002, the Suzanne Patterson Center, behind Princeton Borough Hall, on April 9. The floor has been beautifully refinished and we have permission to use the fine new Yamaha acoustic piano. We are very grateful to Princeton Borough Council members for listening to our concerns, and for voting in March to keep the rates affordable for groups like ours. Many thanks also to PCD treasurer Larry Koplik for acting as our liaison with the Princeton Senior Resource Center, which administers the building.

2003 ELECTION RESULTS

Warm thanks to Sue Dupre, Hinda Kriegel, and Barbara Simpson, who stepped down from the Executive Committee this spring. All remain involved with PCD in other capacities.

At the March 26 dance, the community elected three new members to the executive committee and re-elected two incumbents. The committee now consists of Dan DeMatteo, Christine Donahue, Lisa Fleming, Bob Isaacs, and Susie Lorand.

SPECIAL CALLERS AND BANDS FOR SUMMER WEDNESDAYS

June 25: Caller Elinor Preston, on tour from Oregon.
July 9: Callers' Open Mic—contact Mark Widmer <mark@harbormist.com> to sign up.
July 23: Diane Silver of N.C. with the Maine band Frigate, who'll provide "a whole shipload of fun with a wicked-good pulse for dancing."

OUTDOOR DANCES—EARLY STARTING TIMES

Wednesday, July 2, 7:30 pm

Wednesday, August 6, 7 pm

We'll start outdoors in front of Borough Hall. (Bring indoor and outdoor dance shoes!) Outdoor noise has to stop by 10 p.m.; the dancing can move inside the Suzanne Patterson Center (which is also our rain location) whenever necessary.

SUMMER FOURTH SATURDAY DANCES

June 28: Bob Isaacs with Pick-up Band led by Ross Harriss—calling all musicians!

July 26: Melanie Axel-Lute and Mark Widmer with the Free Radicals

August 23: Ridge Kennedy with Grumblin' Rustic from Long Island
